

Contents

- 7 Foreword László Baán
11 Introduction Marian Bisanz-Prakken

NUDA VERITAS

GUSTAV KLIMT AND THE ORIGINS OF THE VIENNA SECESSION 1895–1905

Marian Bisanz-Prakken

- 15 The "Sacred Spring" of the Vienna Secession – An Attempt at a Portrait
37 The Hagengesellschaft and the Siebener-Club – The Roots of the Secession
53 Gustav Klimt and the Early Secession
93 The Year 1898 – First Flowering of the "Sacred Spring"
105 Drawings for Ver Sacrum (1899–1903)
115 Autonomous Works (1897–1903) – "The World of the Artist" in Upheaval
129 The Beethoven Exhibition and the New Trend towards Monumentalism (1902–05)
143 The Early Secession and the Woodcut
157 International Art in the Vienna Secession
194 Notes

VOICES OF THE SECESSION (1898–1905)

- 197 Programmatic texts and contemporary commentaries

HUNGARIAN RESPONSES TO THE VIENNA SECESSION

- 211 A Hungarian View of the Vienna Secession (1897–1905)
Kata Bodor
223 The Vienna Secession and the Acquisitions of the Museum of Fine Arts, Budapest
Zsuzsa Gonda
230 Notes
233 List of Exhibited Works
247 Bibliography
250 Index of Artists
251 Acknowledgements
252 Photograph Credits